Searching Spirit

by Peter Williams

Peter Williams has always had a searching spirit. As a teenager, he turned to the Internet seeking answers to other worldly questions.

"I had a growing awareness, a sense of something else out there, another layer beyond my understanding. I had to know more. That's where my search began and that's when I had my first connection with Spirit."

Those connections set Peter on a path of learning as an attentive student of Spirit. However, it would be many years later, while pursuing his teaching ambitions in Japan, that a cataclysmic event shook the foundations of his world to reveal the true nature of the lessons he had been studying all along.

He and his wife, who is heavily pregnant with their first child are forced to make the difficult decision to leave their home behind and return to the safety of Australia. It's here, born out of those dark days of upheaval, that Peter's true purpose is revealed.

This is a refreshingly down to earth, honest and humorous read, yet throughout the pages Peter's simple yet profound message triumphs. If you are willing to open yourself up, connection with Spirit can be truly life-changing.

AN EXTRACT

If you would like to use an extract from Searching Spirit, you may use the following excerpts free of charge as long as you credit "Searching Spirit by Peter Williams."

Short Extracts

"This would be Spirit's first lesson for me, though I didn't realise it at the time. There is safety and comfort in what we know. But like a child in the womb, we must be expelled to begin our new life.

I'd just had my first taste of what it felt like to be separated from my siblings. Whether you're separated by death or distance, loss is loss, and you grieve for it just the same."

"I discovered I had a desire to find answers too, only I was searching for the answers to a very different set of questions. I had a growing awareness that there was another layer operating somewhere beyond the physical world I could see, and I wanted to know more."

AUTHOR BIO

Peter Williams was born in the Northern Suburbs of Brisbane, Queensland, Australia. He led a happy, normal life and in his own words had an "idyllic childhood."

"I was inspired to write my book to share my own personal journey to becoming a psychic medium. I was just a typical Australian boy playing with my friends on my bike, playing computer games, enjoying my life - until everything changed.

In my book Searching Spirit, I share my story of 'awakening' and the road to developing my clairvoyance, clairsentience and clairaudience - from practicing with friends, to finding a mentor, to where I am now. I am blessed to be able to travel the world, stand on Platform in front of huge audiences across Australia, Japan, Hong Kong and China, and connect people with loved ones they've lost.

I hope readers will enjoy the personal moments I have shared - all the little things (and the huge shifts) - as well as all the life lessons along the way.

My message is simple. If you open yourself up to the possibility - connection with Spirit is life-changing."

Vivi Li - NSW

"Peter Williams' book, Searching Spirit really inspired me. I'm at the stage in my life, where at 30 years old, I'm questioning and searching for answers to the big 'life' questions particularly around the spirit world and the afterlife. It's amazing how life is a synchronicity and the lessons that we learn to get to where we should be and Peter's book really highlights this. I was also intrigued by the past life regressions and how this could be used as a useful tool to heal the blocks in this life. The testimonies were fabulous, it gave me real insight into who Peter Williams is. That was exciting. I love reading that sort of thing."

Kiyomi MacKay Tokyo, Japan

If I were to sum up the experience, all I can say is it felt like my mind had been cleansed or as though some invisible tumour had been removed. I am now ready to move forward with a whole new level of determination, safe in the knowledge that they [my loved ones] are still by my side.

Janet Ward, Glasgow, Scotland

"If anyone is even thinking about going to a Medium, I'd say don't be afraid. I think medium's really help and provide comfort where it's needed. You just need to go in with an open mind!

"The experience was life changing"

Shannon Blasche, NSW

"There is a naturalness, humbleness about Peter that really stands out, and I loved his 'jokester' nature and strong ability to bring through your loved one's personalities"

"If you've ever thought about a reading, don't hold back. You will love Peter's natural, humble, jokey personality, his honesty, pure heart and the way he brings your loved ones messages through. The thing I love about Peter is he doesn't ask questions. Peter was able to bring my loved one's through in such detail, both personality and appearance that my family and I know for certain It was them"
